SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1898.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "value" free any more than a merchant can over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

THE Verdict

It is the handsomest line of clothing ever found in Maysville. If this is not the exact truth, then hundreds of customers who have looked through our stock and bought their spring outfit deceive themselves for the reason that the verdict is the Voluntary Expression of Good Dressers.

who have favored us by their patronage this spring. Our trade ever since the first of March has justified us in adding from day to day the newest production in everything that pertains to our various departments. Look in our windows; they indicate the proper styles in

THE BEST OLD GEN IN TOWN.

I never thought I'd need her;
That gun o' mine, as 'in;
No' ever have her take her
From the rack she's rustin' in;
But times is changed; an' Johnny,
You might'st well had 'er down;
That's still some fightin' in 'er—
The best o' gun in town!

They heard her at Manassas;
She ripped away like fun;
An' made some lively music—
I tell you—at Bull Run.

An' ever'where she hit her down,
'Till peace come 'long'er town,
That overpow'rin' voice o' her's—
The best o' gun in town!

I'm sorry that she's needed;
I towed the wars was done,
An' that I'd never have her fill
More graves with that o' gun!

But times is changed; an' Johnny,
You might'st well had 'er down;
Once more they'll hear the music
Of the best o' gun in town!

CONFLICTING.

[When you see a big "conflict" heading and read below it that such-and-such a thing is "reported" to have occurred, don't believe a word of it. It's a trap to catch suckers and sell papers—and it's low down, dirty journalism.—Ed. LEDGER.]

William Norman Guthrie Saturday night at the Courthouse at 8 o'clock! Indeed you will miss a rare treat if you fail to hear this brilliant lecturer in his happiest vein. It will be 50 cents most profitably spent, for you can learn much, as well as be highly entertained.

MURPHY the Jeweler.

WHO'S RIGHT?

Where Are the Remains of the Rev. Samuel Tucker Buried?

THE LEDGER's suggestion that the resting-place of the city's pioneers in rear of the Opera house be cleaned up and that the tombs be restored as far as possible, has created more than passing interest.

Yesterday a most valued friend came forward with the proposition that it would be fitting to remove the dust of the Rev. John Tucker from its supposed burial place, and deposit it in the pioneer cemetery.

Inquiry developed that, according to local tradition, the remains were buried beneath the sidewalk on the Southwest corner of Market and Front streets, but, without ability to touch for the correctness of either contention, THE LEDGER submits the following from the "Historical Sketch of the Methodist Episcopal Church," Collins's History of Kentucky, Vol. I, p. 450:

"Samuel Tucker, in 1790, was appointed to the Limestone Circuit, but on his way down the Ohio river, at or near the mouth of Brush creek, the boat was attacked by Indians, and the crew all killed except Mr. Tucker, who was mortally wounded. With extraordinary coolness he defended the boat to the last, and reached Limestone May 1st, 1791, but soon died of his wounds. His remains now lie in the Cemetery at Maysville, with no stone to mark his grave."

We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

OCCURRING AT ORANGEBURG.

What The Ledger's Correspondent Reports From That Pleasant Locality.

Mrs. El. Frame is suffering with kidney trouble.

Mrs. W. H. Thomas is thought to be slowly improving.

Several of our citizens went to Flemingsburg Monday—Court Day.

Dr. J. W. Hutton of Flemingsburg was the guest of the family of Dr. Gaines last week.

Mrs. Mary Arnold returned home Monday after spending several very pleasant days in Fleming.

Rev. Fisher, acting Presiding Elder of the M. E. Church, South, held the regular quarterly meeting here Saturday and Sunday.

R. T. Marshall of Mt. Carmel and Luther Markwell, officers of the M. E. Church, South, at that place were here to attend quarterly meeting.

M. E. P. Forman, Gauger, has been assigned to the H. E. Pogue Distillery Co. and J. W. Watson & Co. for the month of May.

"A word to the wise is sufficient," and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you say who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated expression of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people and is the best. REV. JOHN BARBOUR.

Minute Adopted By Presbytery on His Resignation at Birmingham, Ala.

Rev. John Barbour recently resigned the Pastorate of the South Highland Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Ala.

The following minute was adopted by the Presbytery in dissolving the Pastoral relation:

In taking this action the Presbytery desires to put on record its affectionate regard for Rev. John Barbour and his brother beloved, a faithful, vigorous and eloquent preacher of the Gospel and a devoted self-denying Minister of Christ. We find that his Pastorate has been blessed with a large measure of success in these trying times and is the best. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.
